RAILROAD STRIKE BEGINS; 13,000 QUIT WORK TO-DAY; 27,000 MORE TO WALK OUT

Men Employed by the Illinois Central at Burnside
First to Go.

OTHER SHOPS TIED UP.

Workmen in Many Cities in West and South Obey the Order to Quit.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—All of the four thousand men employed in the Illinois Central shops at Burnside, south of Chicago, laid down their tools and went on strike at 10 o'clock A. M. to-day.
There was no disorder. Guards were immediately thrown about the place by the railroad officials. Fully 12,000 men have so far obeyed the order.

There was no signal given when the order to strike arrived. As soon as the whistles showed 10 o'clock the employees walked out in groups of twenty and thirty, as they finished their tasks.
There was no sign of demonstration and the police at the gates of the shops had nothing to do but look on at the exodus. Most of the men went home to their homes rather than linger at the gates.

No strikebreakers were at hand, and, although the company is reported to have a force of recruits in Chicago, it is thought they will not be taken to the shops until to-morrow.

One hundred and fifty locomotives in the course of repair are in the shops, and more than 500 cars are reported to be in the yards, not available for use until repaired.

The first handicap to traffic is expected to-night, when the engines are brought to the ash pits. The men say there will be no one to handle them and the engines will not be ready for the to-morrow.

Julius Kruttschnitt, vice-president of the Harriman lines, who will manage the affairs of the road during the strike, arrived to-day.

It is believed that nearly 40,000 will be out soon. There are employees of the Harriman lines and the Illinois Central. The strike is for recognition of the Systems Federation, and it is expected to extend to every railway system in America.

TRADES THAT ARE AFFECTED BY THE GREAT STRIKE.

The order for the strike, sent out last night, affects the following members of the Systems Federation and the two lines:

Millwrights 5,000
Machinists 10,000
Carpenters 14,000
Blacksmiths 3,000
Cooks 1,200
Painters 2,000
Laborers (Federated) 2,000

Total 38,000

The lines affected by the strike order are the Union Pacific, the Southern Pacific, the Oregon Short Line, the Oregon, Washington and Northern, the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company, the Sunset Route, the Illinois Central, the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley and the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake City.

CHARTER BEATEN IS ADMITTED BY SENATE LEADER

Eight Democrats in the Upper House, Including Roosevelt, Stand Against It.

CONFERENCE IN VAIN.

Congressional Reapportionment Bill Passed in Assembly By 82 to 51 Vote.

ALBANY, Sept. 30.—Senator Cullen, Chairman of the Cities Committee, announced shortly before 3 o'clock that the New York Charter was beaten in the Senate.

A vote in the conference which was still in session at that hour showed that eight Democratic Senators—Bayne, Black, Burd, Hart, Roosevelt, Saxa, Stillwell and Duhamel—were against it.
The Assembly to-day passed the Congressional Reapportionment bill by a vote of 82 to 51. Changes were made in the Seventh and Eighth Congressional Districts of Kings, the Forty-first and Forty-second Districts of Erie, and Courtland County was added to Onandaga County.

The Senate convened at 11:30 and immediately took a recess for an hour to permit the Democrats to hold a conference.

"The New York charter is as dead as Pharaoh's mummy," said Senator Pharaoh during the recess. "I have it on the highest authority." The Democratic leaders have assured the minority that the session will adjourn sine die to-day, but it probably will be late to-night before the business is concluded.

The Direct Nominations bill, as amended in the Senate last night, was passed in the Senate this afternoon by a vote of 20 to 15.

The Assembly convened at 1:15 P. M.
Gov. Dix's message urging the repeal of the Frailty Athletic Commission bill was read, but no action upon it was taken.

Under emergency messages from the Governor, the Cullen bill, appropriating $125,000 for the State Library and the Rampersperger bill exempting the New York City traffic squad from the provisions of the three platoon police law, were passed.

A resolution increasing from $25,000 to $50,000 the appropriation for the proposed Senate investigation of the affairs of Albany city and county was adopted.

George R. Van Name of Jefferson County was elected Clerk of the House to succeed the late Luke McHenry.

The Senate at 3:15 P. M. adopted a resolution calling for sine die adjournment of the Legislature at 4 P. M. today.

By a vote of 21 to 11 the Senate this afternoon passed the Direct Nominations bill as amended in the Senate last night.
The bill retains the State convention, but is statewide in other respects and was declared by Senator Hoffman to be a workable direct primary bill, which would meet the recommendation of Gov. Dix.

The vote follows:
Ayes—Bayne, Black, Burd, Duhamel, Fors, Hays, Higgins, Griffin, Loomis, Murtaugh, O'Brien, Pollock, Roosevelt, Snider, Saxe, White, Democrats: Black-ett, Husey, Cobb, Griffith, Hamilton, Heacock, Hewitt, Himm, Newcomb, Orrison, Rose, Thomas, Travis, Wainwright, Walters, Republicans.
Nays—Cullen, Cullen, Francis, Grady, Long, McCallister, McManus, Ramsperger, Stillwell, C. D. Sullivan, T. D.
Sullivan, Democrats: Coats, Platt, Sage, Republicans.

SAM McVEY WINS TITLE FROM LESTER IN AUSTRALIA.
San Francisco Negro Heavyweight Got Decision in Twenty-Round Bout.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Sept. 30.—Sam McVey of California to-day defeated Jack Lester of Portland, Ore., on points in a twenty-round match for the heavyweight championship of Australia. Seventy thousand persons gathered in the stadium to witness the contest.

Lester is the white boy developed by ex-champion Tommy Burns. He recently won the Australian championship by beating Bill Lang there.

Six Races in Fall Bearers' List.
All nations were represented as fall bearers at the funeral of Stanley Pe-koski, held to-day in Bayonne, N. J.
Peikoski, who was employed by Samuel Levy, No. 46 Avenue C, Bayonne, was killed yesterday when an automobile truck ran over him. The fall bearers were Bert Johnson, colored, Patrick Sullivan, Jacob Schmidt, Anton Linski, Joseph Piskerli and a man named Levy.

500 SWEEP TO DEATH AS BIG DAM BURSTS AT PENNSYLVANIA TOWN

Millions of Gallons of Water Rush Down Over Austin—People Had No Warning of Any Danger.

(Special to The Evening World.)

AUSTIN, Pa., Sept. 30.—From 300 to 500 persons were drowned late this afternoon when a huge dam protecting one end of a huge reservoir burst and millions of gallons of water swept down over the city.

The inhabitants had no time to escape. The breaking of the dam was unexpected. No warning of any kind had been given to the people of a weakness in it.

The debris has taken fire and the death rate may be even worse than at first reported. Many who were imprisoned in their homes by the water were so penned in that they had no time to escape when the flames took up the work of devastation. Austin is in Potter County.

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 30.—Despite the chilly wind that came off Lake Michigan and forced Chicago to wrap itself in a blanket 20,000 hopeful fans crowded into Charley Murphy's park ready for the third battle between the Giants and the Cubs. Though the icy breeze was a little tough on the crowd the day was made to order for Leon Ames, and that made the chances look bright for a Giants victory. Ames has always been at his best on cold days, and McGraw had him trying his arm out an hour before the whistle blew for the real hostilities. In case of a sudden switch to Doctor Crandall and George Witte also took a turn at warming up.

The feeling of staleness and lassitude that struck the Giants two days ago disappeared with the cool weather and they were full of brisk peppery action during practice.

The crowd that was apathetic toward the Cubs at the beginning of the series changed front this afternoon and cheered their favorites with the same just enthusiasm that was a feature of the old battles with the Giants when the Cubs were champions.

Manager Chance showed much hesitation about his pitching assignment, he would like Miner Brown, but the three-fingered wonder has been suffering from severe headaches and the Cubs said that it depended entirely upon the condition of Brown's head whether or not he would work. He warmed up at any rate as did McIntyre, Reulbach and others.

About half of the Chicago White Sox team was present at the game to get a line on the Cubs, whom they expect

JOKER'S WIT WINS HIM A HOME, BUT IT'S ON THE ISLAND

Magistrate Breen Matches the Humor of Michael Mooney in a Solemn Way.

Michael Mooney, besides standing six feet in his stockings and having a thatch of hair that reminds one of a sunset on the Lakes of Killarney, has a rare wit.

He thought it a good joke to hurl a brick through a saloon window at No.
223 Third avenue early to-day. The proprietor couldn't see anything funny about it and tried to tell Mooney a thing or two. Michael thought another good joke would be to cave in the saloonkeeper's features. But neither the saloonkeeper nor Policeman Koch of the East One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street station could see it that way. Later Mooney stood before Magistrate Breen in the Harlem Police Court.

"What is your name?" asked the Magistrate.
"Michael Brodsky," Magistrate Breen looked at him with scorn.
"And where do you live?"
"Oh, it's no definite address I have.
Just plain United States will reach me," Michael declared.

"No," he no definite address you have," queried the Magistrate.
"Shure, and that, Yer Honor, is the truth," Michael acquiesced.

"Well, then, Michael," the Magistrate informed him, "then it is I who will be seeing to it that you have a definite address for the next three months, anyhow. It will be, Michael Mooney, Black-well's Island, New York, U. S. A."

Michael's sense of humor stayed right with him to the end. He laugh echoed through the court-room long after the door leading to the prison had closed on him, and he was still snickering with glee as he entered the Black Maria, en route for his definite address.

NAVAL BATTLE FOUGHT; PREVEZA ALSO ATTACKED.

DEVELOPMENTS TO DATE OF ITALIAN-TURKISH WAR.

Tripoli was bombarded to-day by the Italian warship squadron. The Turks refused to surrender the city and under orders from Constantinople resisted the invasion. Italian troops were landed under the fire of the warships' guns.

A naval battle was fought to-day off the port of Durazzo on the west coast of Albania, when Italian warships attacked two Turkish torpedo boats.

Italian warships under the command of the Duke of the Abruzzi have bombarded the Turkish seaport of Prevesa, destroying the Government houses there and disabling a Turkish torpedo boat.

A large Italian cruiser is reported to have gone ashore in Tripoli harbor.

Italy has captured the Turkish transport, Derna. The new Turkish Governor-General of Tripoli, who was a passenger, was taken prisoner with a large body of troops.

Two Turkish transports with men and munitions aboard have been driven ashore by Italian warships near Prevesa.

Two Turkish destroyers badly damaged were run ashore in the Gulf of Arta to escape capture.

Turks Resist Italians In Attack on Tripoli.

TRIPOLI, Sept. 30.—The Italian warship squadron fired on the forts at 10:30 A. M. to-day. The Turks refused to surrender and, acting under orders from Constantinople, made a desperate resistance against the invasion of the city.

A panic among the people of Tripoli preceded the bombardment and there was a wild flight for safety. Each Consulate is flying an enormous flag in order that the neutrality buildings may be easily distinguished by the invading troops. The German flag flies over the Italian Consulate and the Catholic Church.

Tunisian and Greek sponge boats in the harbor are filled with refugees.

The landing of the Italian troops was made under cover of the heavy fire of big warship guns.

Turkish Warships Attacked; City Bombarded; Sea Fighter Sunk

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 30.—It was officially announced late to-day that Italian warships this morning attacked two Turkish torpedo-boats off the port of Durazzo, on the west coast of Albania.

The Minister of War, Mahmoud Scheffer Pasha, has telegraphed to the Turkish commandant at Tripoli to defend that territory with the utmost energy and to appeal to the religion of the people. It is probable that the Italian declaration of war and the attack upon the Turkish torpedo-boat destroyers at Prevesa has decided the Turkish Government to reverse its decision not to defend Tripoli.

SALONICA, Turkey, Sept. 30.—An Italian naval division to-day bombarded the seaport of Prevesa, destroying the Government House and sinking a Turkish torpedo-boat in the harbor. The Duke of the Abruzzi commanded the bombarding fleet.

Prevesa is the real theatre of war; the Italians yesterday begining the first naval engagement against Turkey by attacking and sinking one of the Sultan's torpedo boat destroyers in the harbor there. Italy's act in planning at the outset an invasion of European Turkey is fraught with tremendous possibilities, as other nations may be speedily involved.

It is reported from Turkish sources that the Italian attack at Prevesa upon the Turkish torpedo-boat destroyers was made ninety minutes before the expiration of the Italian ultimatum.

Specials from Athens state that the Turks were trying to join four other destroyers at Gumenitza, near Prevesa. Cannonading was heard off Gumenitza last night, whence it was concluded that the Italians had attacked the other torpedo-boat destroyers there and blockaded that port.

The damaged destroyer at Prevesa was stripped of her guns and munitions by the Turks to prevent their capture by the enemy.

Prevesa, the Turkish seaport which has been bombarded by Italian warships, was once before the scene of a bombardment, in 1897, when the
